 Anne Allen: 905-877-4211

Food From the Heart - with the recent expansion of meal services at the Georgetown Bread Basket, Food from the Heart is in need of a freezer for the purchasing and storage of bulk buying of meat products and finished cooked food. If you should know of anyone who has a good second-hand freezer for sale, would you kindly let Dennis McLay or Rev Steve know. It can be either an upright or a chest freezer preferably with a working lock.

ONE CHURCH WORSHIP -.On the evening of Saturday, May 19th, Knox will be hosting a joint worship service we are calling One Church worship!

Music and prayer leaders will be from around the community, and though you may not know all the words, the praise of the group will come from open and joyous hearts!

Worship starts at 7:00 p.m.

GEORGETOWN BREAD BASKET MAY FOOD/FUND RAISER.

Mission and Outreach has decided that we would like to repeat our successful May Food/Fund Raiser from last year! Again, our target figure is 500 pounds/227 kg, and this will be weighed and tallied throughout the month. Our targeted foods include Canned Pasta, Juice Boxes Salmon, Crackers. Canned Juice, Instant Coffee. Condiments required most are Ketchup, Mayonnaise, and Cheez Whiz. Items can be brought to the front of the sanctuary every week! Let's hit that goal!

ELDER ELECTION

The Nominees for ordination and induction as Elders in the congregation of Knox, Georgetown are Dennis McLay and Elizabeth Colter. As we only have two names and the Session was only looking to add two individuals to its number at this time, this is less an election and more a ratification or an expression of concurrence.

If you believe that either of these individuals, one or both, would serve us well as an Elder, please indicate by marking the indicated box on your ballot. If you do not believe that they, one or both, would serve us well as an Elder, please indicate by marking the indicated box.

Once you have marked your ballot, please place it back into the envelope in which you received it. Sign it. Seal it. Drop it in the ballot box by Sunday, May 27th for it to be counted.
