Christmas Treasure's at Knox will be held at Knox on Saturday, 24th of November, and the times are 10:00 am to 1:00 pm - not the times contained in last week's bulletin. Please deliver your contributions to Marlene Preston at her home before Sunday November 18th, or leave them well marked, in the computer room at the church, preferably with the door locked. Many hands make light(er) work and we appreciate your assistance.

The winter newsletter is available at the back of the church this morning. This time, they are identified, so please look for your own name, and hopefully take and deliver one or two to a member you know is not able to join us in person. Since a communion service is coming up, we are hoping that the elders will deliver a newsletter, perhaps along with a person's communion card. Your help would be very much appreciated.

ABOUT BEEF PIES: Once again we are making 5 inch beef pies which will be sold at the Bake Table at the bazaar Nov 24th. They are $5.00 each. However, I will be selling to our church members on Sunday Nov. 11th after the service. See you in the small hall if you want to purchase in advance. A maximum of 4 pies please. Thank you, Greta Lamb 905 877-4625.

O VALIANT HEARTS

O valiant hearts who to your glory came
Through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war
As who had heard God's message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave,
To save mankind-yourselves you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made;
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet call of God.

Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still,
Rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
While in the frailty of our human clay,
Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self same way.

Still stands His Cross from that dread hour to this,
Like some bright star above the dark abyss;
Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes
Look down to bless our lesser Cavalries.

These were His servants, in His steps they trod,
Following through death the martyred Son of God:
Victor, He rose; victorious too shall rise
They who have drunk His cup of sacrifice.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our dead,
Whose cross has bought them and Whose staff has led,
In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land
Commits her children to Thy gracious hand.
(Tune: Abide With Me)
